

Newsletter
 JANUARY 2016
 No. 86

“ In the early morning hours, under the cover of darkness, the Israeli occupation army invaded Birzeit University campus. This is neither new nor unprecedented given the ongoing colonial aggression against the people and institutions of Palestine. Birzeit University condemns this attack and the direct violation of the sanctity of the university campus.

➤ Read Statement

FEATURE

Birzeit University Welcomes New President Abu Hijleh

On September 8, 2015, Birzeit University held a ceremony to inaugurate its new president Abedalatif Abu Hijleh. The inauguration was attended by members of the university's Board of Trustee, Board of Directors, the former president, and faculty and staff.

Astronomical Observatory Opens at Birzeit University

The observatory will facilitate students and others who are interested in astronomy to identify celestial bodies utilizing the observatory's high-powered telescope, and by offering conferences and seminars.

Opening of Naseeb Aziz Shaheen Theatre

A Theatre of about 850 persons capacity, will be a free space for expressing ideas and thoughts through all kinds of performances, music, drama and dance from Palestine and the whole world.

Samih Darwazeh Institute for Pharmaceutical Industries Opens

The opening of the institute will contribute to transferring modern technology in manufacturing pharmaceuticals and applying quality standards in Palestine while meeting pharmaceutical needs. It will also assist in providing scientific advice and promoting pharmaceutical research and training.

NEWS

Birzeit University Delegation wins the "Best Representation" at Model Arab League

For the second consecutive year, Birzeit University won an award of "Best Representation" in the delegation of the Iraqi Council of Affairs at the Cairo International Model Arab League conference which was held in the American University. Birzeit University's delegations was represented by two political science students.

University Demands Release of Detained Students

University president Abedalatif Abu Hijleh called upon those who are free in the world to stand together to uphold the values of human rights in light of Israeli oppression towards Palestinians, especially students. He demanded the release of students being held in Israeli jails so they can return to their classes and complete their education.

Computer Students Reach Finals in World's Imagination Cup

Birzeit University's team is the only Arab team to reach the finals with their "Brain Control Remote." The project aims to help in the installation of artificial limbs that are controlled by the brain, effectively reducing the costs of surgery.

Academic Infrastructure Rehabilitated to Develop More Quality Programs

Birzeit University has successfully signed an agreement with the Islamic Development Bank for the implementation of a project rehabilitating the academic infrastructure of the university.

Copyright © 2016 Birzeit University, All rights reserved.

